Meanwhile the Chief Judge's D.O. there seems to be no objection to Bais Mohyuddin's availing himself of the privilege wherever he [illegible] he wants it - and this will be at his credit. There seems to be no limit of time within which the application should be made - Under the rules no further action seems necessary & this may be intimated to the Chief Secy. Govt.

23.X.03

There is no limit to the time when the Privilege leave may be taken; but Art. 207(i) which has been extended to Chief Court Judges, allows the payment of full salary only during the first three years of the transfer to Ind[l] Service. There is no provision which allows Govt to extend this period.

For Plague Concessions leave the Order (Copy ~~and~~ put up) expressly allows extension when exigencies of service prevented the grant of the leave.

Perhaps a special order may be passed in this case.

My dear Sir Krishna murthy,

I informed Mr.Rungasamy Iyengar of the substance of the letter which I had written to you in regard to his application for privilege leave. He has promised not to avail himself of the leave without consulting me although he would rather have the leave. His application may be sanctioned after the Christmas holidays. I will go through the list of pending cases, and if I find that I can permit him to avail himself of the leave, in whole or part, I will not stand in his

If I find it inconvenient, I request him to cancel the leave.

Yours sincerely,

My dear Sir Krishna Gupta

I wrote you this afternoon in answer to your enquiry about Justice Ramesam's Degree leave. I have seen him since & talked with him about the necessity of applying for leave just now. He does not seem to be very keen about it. He is entitled to privilege leave & that he may avail himself about it. If the Govt has no objection to have the leave to his credit & to permit him to avail himself of it whenever he needs it, he seems inclined to cancel his application.

Yours sincerely
